MUSIC AND RECREATION FOR ALL ABILITIES

www.accessiblefestivals.org
Recreation is critical to human happiness. However, the importance of recreation is often overlooked for the 65 million people living with disabilities.
Accessible Festivals recognizes this essential human need and is dedicated to making communities stronger by ensuring music and recreation is accessible to all abilities.
Shared musical experiences benefit everyone:

- Strengthens family and cultural connections
- Improves health and promotes healthy habits
- Reduces stress, pain, and antisocial behavior
- Builds social cohesion and inclusive communities
We envision a fully inclusive world that guarantees access and a sense of belonging for ALL people.
Our mission is to foster connection and understanding through the universal language of music, to provide a platform where people of all abilities and identities can connect and build relationships, and to inspire the creation of safe, inclusive, and equitable communities.
Our annual INCLUSION FESTIVAL demonstrates this vision by offering a diverse lineup of uplifting live music and workshops, by designing an environment that is fully accessible, and by empowering people of all abilities to participate fully in co-creating an inclusive space.
Inclusion Festival 2020 will be presented online. We are saddened by the inability to gather in person, but very excited by the opportunity to bring the lessons, joy, and sense of connection with ourselves and others into our homes through an interactive, livestream experience.

Our multi-disciplinary management team is comprised of compassionate leaders in the education and entertainment industries with a wide range of personal experiences living with and providing direct support to people with different abilities.

Austin Whitney

Combining his legal education from UC Berkley and his own personal experience living with disability, Austin assists the nation’s largest event promoters to ensure they are fully accessible to all abilities.

Amy Pinder

As a speech-language therapist and music festival producer, Amy has directly served people of all abilities for over 15 years with compassion and dedication to promoting awareness, acceptance, and community inclusion.

Leah Barron

Through her work as a special education teacher, yoga instructor, and music festival producer, Leah has worked to improve the quality of life and access to community resources for people of all abilities through direct service and event planning.
Music is the universal language of human kind.
100% of donations received from Inclusion Festival ONLINE will support the work of Accessible Festivals which serves to unite, inform, and empower communities to create welcoming, inclusive environments where people of all abilities and identities are heard and respected.
When diverse voices are part of the conversations that take place in the comfort of recreational settings, all of society benefits.
Thank You!

We hope you will join our worthwhile journey to include and unite all people through the universal language of music!
